

Issue 42 (05/2013)

Mr. Stephen Wong, New Partner of Maurice WM Lee Solicitors
李偉民律師事務所新任合伙人黃啟豪律師

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Stephen Wong joined our firm on 8 May 2013 as a partner.

Stephen received his bachelor degree and post certificate of laws from the Law Faculty of the University of Hong Kong. He was trained as a litigator in both civil and criminal proceedings. He was involved in high power regulatory proceedings. During his career, he joined the Enforcement Division of the Securities and Futures Commission and focused on the investigation and prosecution of market misconducts, including market manipulation, insider dealings and frauds. Stephen also had the opportunity to act as personal assistant to the Chairman of the SFC where he gained much exposure with different disciplines of the commission. After working for the SFC, he joined Ernst & Young Hong Kong in 2011 and worked as its legal counsel where he had the opportunity of handling contentious matters, including local and overseas regulatory matters, disciplinary proceedings, liquidators' procedures and civil proceedings.

With such vast experience in handling regulatory matters in Hong Kong, Stephen is going to bring forth a new range of regulatory expertise for our valuable clients.
